FOSTERING CREATIVE DISCIPLINE & LEADERSHIP

Unlocking the Potential of Lagos Youth

BRIDGING OPPORTUNITY GAPS

Lagos boasts a vibrant youth demographic, yet lacks structured creative outlets after school. We can fill this gap with disciplined and tailored music programs that inspire our youth by replicating the music education initiative adopted by western countries from its origin in Venezuela.

Countries in Africa like Tunisia, Senegal and Gambia have taken upon this initiative. It is thereby imperative that Nigeria, the global centre of music and entertainment in Africa, likewise adopts this initiative to build its future and retain its global impact and significance in music and entertainment.

Importance

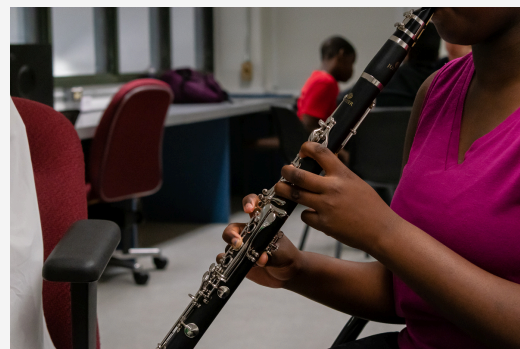

COMMUNAL ENGAGEMENT, COGNITIVE DEVELOPMENT, FUTURE PREPAREDNESS

Research indicates that 75% of local communities reported increased engagement in cultural activities when youth orchestra programs were introduced. This highlights the potential of music initiatives to foster community participation, enhance social cohesion, and uplift the local culture, demonstrating a significant return on investment for sponsors.

Recent 2024 research from the University of Southern California and the National Institutes of Health proves that just one year of music lessons triggers measurable brain growth, enhancing language, memory, and emotional regulation. It acts as a comprehensive full-brain workout that traditional academic drills cannot replicate.

We are entering a new age of AI technology where human isolation is unfortunately bound to become the norm. As social creatures, we fundamentally rely on one another for sanity, peace, and happiness. There is no better preparation for that future than music, which is our most powerful tool for social interaction and community engagement.

TESTIMONIALS OF MY PAST SDR INVOLVEMENT IN OTTAWA, ON CANADA

Other than the recognised OrKidstra program in the city of Ottawa, which I have been part of as a teaching artist, there are other minor CSR programs in music going on across the city.

These images are photos of activities including concerts, camps, lessons and recitals in Ottawa Canada organized by OrKidstra at the Ottawa Technical School, and by our studio in Ottawa Ontario, Canada. These programs were made possible through collaboration and funding from organizations including the Canada Arts Council, Ottawa Cultural Funding, the Michaëlle Jean Foundation, CCI (Catholic Centre for Immigration) Ottawa, Dominion-Chalmers United Church, and private donors. I'd be happy to share more media photos and videos of our engagements with you at your request.

We hope that we can replicate this system in our beloved Lagos through your generous donations and support.
